Gone but not forgotten

by: Ashley Sibley

Breon Robertson, a 17 year old NHS student, departed from us on September 3, 2012. He was a very shy child. Although he was shy, his heart was made of gold. Roberts had a smile that would light up a room. Ms. Meeks taught Breon almost every semester for three years. When asked about her relationship with him she said, "Even if I didn't have him in my class, he would still stop by to say hi. He would make me cards for the holidays."

She also stated that Breon made her realize that all students need love and care. "Often times as teachers they don't take into consideration what's going on in students' lives outside of class." Not only did Breon impact his teachers, but his life had an effect on all of us. He was loved and cared for at NHS and will never be forgotten.

Identity crisis

by: Nicole Lenard

The students of Northwestern High came to school the first week only to find out that not everyone had IDs. In addition, some IDs' barcodes wouldn't scan. Problems ranged from not being able to check out library books to not being able to get lunch or a pass to class. Before knowing the source of the problem, students with defected IDs were given stickers with their barcode numbers.

We now know that something went wrong with Lifetouch, the provider of the IDs. However, as to what specifically went wrong is still unclear. Mr. Blake has informed our staff that Lifetouch is making new IDs. These reproduced IDs will be used or sold for replacements, if needed. Now that we have them in our possession, it is important that we wear them to maintain the safety of our school.

Theatre Arts: Grease!

by: Cameron Locklear

Are you a fan of theatre? If so, you should know that the theatre class/club produces a play or two every semester. This year the class will re-produce the hit movie Grease. This production will be about two lovers unexpectedly meeting again in the 1950's after a previous heated summer romance. In order to be a part of the play, you will need to sign up for an audition with Ms. Altman. The theatre class will place posters around the school that inform you of the date the auditions will begin. If you are interested in working with this production, you may apply to sell tickets, set up the backstage, act in the play or advertise the production.

NHS welcomes new lacrosse club

by: Kyonna Perry

Lacrosse, an up and coming sport that lacks many high school teams, has found its way to Northwestern. This new club sport now needs more members to join the team. Right now, the club has 50 members (30 boys, 25 girls) that attend practice and meetings. Students who join the club will also play teams around the district. Mrs. Medina, the coach of the lacrosse club, is excited to begin the year as the club is growing in popularity and the number of female participants has greatly increased. She is looking to extend the group and would like all students to have the opportunity to learn about the sport. For more information, contact Mrs. Medina in room A-219.
